

B4 Stage 4: Starting the Conversation

Mental Health America of Arizona and Arizona State University announces conference during National Mental Health Awareness Month

Friday-Saturday, May 20-21, 2016
628 North 3rd Avenue, Phoenix, AZ 85003
9 am – 4 pm

This two-day conference aims to bring together individuals and family members living with mental health conditions/illnesses as well as self-advocates, providers, educators, public health partners, public safety personnel, and faith-based communities.

Attendees can expect to learn more about...

- Early signs/symptoms of a mental health conditions
- Advocacy skills for loved ones
- Community resources
- Crisis services
- Innovative programs
- Engaging and mobilizing with others

The Special Needs Resources Program is sponsoring limited registration and transportation for Adult Community Members. Please call 480-362-6980 for registration by May 6, 2016.